

The Working Times Regulation 1998 ("The Regulations") require the Company to limit your average weekly working time to 48 hours unless you agree with the Company that the limit shall not apply to you.

The Company wishes to have an agreement with you. It proposes an agreement (which will apply until terminated by notice) on the basis that:

1. The 48 hour limit on average weekly time will not apply to you.
2. You may terminate the agreement (so that the 48 hour time limit would apply to you) by giving the person at the Company, to whom you usually report, 4 weeks written notice.

Under the Regulations, the Company must keep records relating to your working time. This is the case whether or not you reach an agreement with the Company about waiving working time limits.

If you accept the Company's proposals please sign below. This document will then be the record of agreement between you and Company.
